

ASLAP Veterinary Student Travel Award

The ASLAP Veterinary Student Liaison Committee (VSLC) is seeking nominations of veterinary students for the ASLAP Veterinary Student Travel Award Program.

The VSLC, with approval of the Board of Directors, is proud to support the Veterinary Student Travel Award Program in order that up to 5 awards may be given this year for travel to the 2008 AALAS National Convention in Indianapolis, Indiana, November 9-13, 2008.

The Veterinary Student Travel Award Program is intended to increase awareness of the practice of laboratory animal medicine by assisting students who have demonstrated an interest in the field to attend the annual AALAS national meeting. Each award will consist of up to $1500 towards registration, travel, meals and accommodations to attend the AALAS national meeting.

Applications received by March 1, 2008 will receive priority consideration. No nominations will be accepted after June 1, 2008.

Nomination package must include:

- Contact information
- Current CV
- Essay of up to 500 words describing their interest in laboratory animal medicine, participation in activities related to laboratory animal medicine, as well as their career goals
- Letter of support from either their ASLAP liaison or student ASLAP chapter faculty advisor
- An estimate of expenses

Student ASLAP members are encouraged to self-nominate for this award.

Nominations will be evaluated by the Veterinary Student Liaison Committee. The award is open to any member of an ASLAP student chapter in good standing from a college or school of veterinary medicine in North America or the Caribbean.

Please send nominations to Evan Shukan, DVM, MPH c/o Darlene Brown, darlene@aslap.org. Again, all nominations must be received by March 1, 2008 for priority consideration and no nominations will be accepted after June 1, 2008.

ASLAP Members

Please support and encourage an ASLAP student chapter member you know who is interested in laboratory animal medicine by asking him/her to nominate him/herself for this award. ASLAP encourages students and ASLAP liaisons/club advisors to explore all opportunities for scholarship travel support at their institution prior to applying for this award.
